We invite you to participate in AGE-WELL's 5th Annual Conference

AGE-WELL 2019 Conference brings together stakeholders who set the agenda for the future of technology and aging. Our conference will be attended by researchers, industry leaders, care providers and organizations, older adults, caregivers and government representatives to discuss current issues and innovations in the field of technology and aging. It is the flagship event of Canada's only national network in technology and aging.

About the AGE-WELL NCE

AGE-WELL is Canada's technology and aging network. We are dedicated to the creation of technologies and services that benefit older adults and caregivers. Our mission is to develop a community of researchers, older adults, caregivers, partners and future leaders that accelerates the delivery of technology-based solutions that make a meaningful difference in the lives of Canadians.

About the Conference

AGE-WELL 2019 will showcase a multi-disciplinary program of research and innovation from across the AGE-WELL Network and provide a forum for networking and collaboration among AGE-WELL partners, researchers, stakeholders and members of the public. Presentations, discussions and networking sessions are designed to maximize knowledge sharing.

This conference also fosters new ideas for research, collaboration and business development in the field. Attendees will learn about the future of technology and aging, and who is playing a leading role in shaping that future in Canada.

Sponsorship Opportunities

By partnering with the AGE-WELL NCE for our Annual Conference, you are associating your brand to leading universities, top researchers, industry leaders and innovators from the technology and aging sector. We are offering a variety of sponsorship opportunities. Join our list of sponsors, increase your company's visibility, build relationships with a highly qualified scientific community, and support Canada's network in technology and aging!
